Hitler Reported to Have Requisitioned Men From His Allies

2,600,000 Fresh Troops to Stop Russians in Advance Demanded

By The Associated Press
Adolf Hitler was reported today to have called upon Italy, Hungary and Slovakia for 2,600,000 fresh troops to bolster the heralded spring offensive and fill the gaps left by nine months of fighting in the war with Russia. Advices reaching London said Hitler, desperately needing manpower to replace the Nazi losses in east, wounded and missing, had demanded 1,000,000 troops from Italy, 1,500,000 from Hungary and 600,000 from Slovakia.

Soviet authorities declared on Feb. 22 that Germany had lost 2,000,000 men on the Russian front. With pre-spring thaws already melting snow on the long battle-line, dispatches indicated that the Russians were smashing with ever increasing fury to demoralize the Germans and keep them reeling backwards instead of organizing a spring counter-drive.

A bulletin from Hitler's field headquarters acknowledged that the Red armies were striking in mass attacks on the southern (Ukraine) front and holding the initiative on the Moscow and Leningrad fronts.

Report Nazis Suffering
Soviet dispatches reported the capture of an important junction in the Lake Ilmen sector, where rapped survivors of the German 6th army originally estimated at 96,000 soldiers were reported suffering from lack of food, clothing and munitions.

A Red army bulletin also announced the capture of three villages on the central front, where Nazi garrisons at Rzhev and Vyazma were described as virtually surrounded.

United States-built trucks and motor cars, some still bearing the live drab paint of the U. S. Army, mingled with Russian vehicles in Moscow today as fresh

Donations for Smokes for Soldiers Dwindle, Dixon Legion Reports

Officers of Dixon post, No. 12, American Legion, report very small returns from the receptacles placed in business houses about the city for contributions to be used to dispense cigarettes and candy bars to departing soldiers. One receptacle on the north side last week yielded a total of $3.42 in the regular collection date and early this week the committee was called to visit the same location again and found the box bulging with a total deposit of $18.62, making a total of $22.04 taken from this receptacle in two days. Personal donations have also been received from J. R. Palmer, T. J. Miller and Horace F. Pratt post, No. 540, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

It was announced today that the legion post will soon place cards in local restaurants authorizing any soldier, sailor or marine in uniform to partake of coffee and rolls through the courtesy of the local post, the expense to be paid from the cigarette fund.

The War Today!

BY DEWITT MACKENZIE
Wide World War Analyst
(Telegraph Special Service)
The Australians are meeting the menace of Japanese invasion in their traditional fighting spirit—with offensive strategy.

Instead of waiting for the Nipponese to get nearly set in their recently acquired bases on the island of New Guinea for a major bombing assault on the neighboring mainland, the still small but doughty Australian airforce has carried the war to the enemy. At least five Japanese transports and one warship were smashed yesterday, and the toll is believed to be bigger.

It took the Russians to crack the myth that Hitler had created a fighting machine which just couldn't be stopped. Maybe it will be Australia's shores against which the Mikado's galleys will break their noses.

Certainly that represents the allied determination, for America and Britain are rushing reinforcements to this last remaining and consequently absolutely vital large base remaining to them in the southwest Pacific. Australia must be held at all costs for an offensive base, and the job must be done mainly by the air force. Many more warplanes are needed, and success will depend in large degree on how many the allies can rush to the scene in the immediate future.

Of course we still have to learn what the Japs have in mind. It isn't yet clear whether they calculate on assuming a limited liability in merely capturing some northern Australian ports to protect their flank, or whether they envisage a full-dress invasion of this vast continent, which is approximately the size of the United States and has a coast-line of 10,000 miles.

Australia quite rightly is—

Busy Line

Kansas City, March 11—(AP)—Orville Anderson talked over the phone for 15 minutes about a piece of real estate.

"Well, I'd better come over and see you," said the stranger at the other end, "we've been tying up this line for some time. Where are you located?"

"213 Reliance Building," replied Anderson.

A little squeal came from the receiver. "O-O-O-H! I'm at 208!"

It was Mrs. Gertrude Clark, just across the hall.

Governor Green, meeting with army representatives and members of the state fair advisory board yesterday, said the grounds would be offered to the army, if the government would insure their return at the end of the war and Springfield and Sangamon county would waive rights to certain deeds.

War Industries at Half Capacity Says Head of Production

Nelson Says Public Will Demand More Output 'and No Fooling'

Washington, March 11—(AP)—President Roosevelt informed congress today in a message analyzing the first year's operations of the lend-lease program that the offensive the United Nations "must and will drive into the heart of the axis" would take "the entire strength that we possess."

"The war can only be won by contact with the enemies, and by attack upon them," he asserted in a letter transmitting the lend-lease report. "That, takes time, for the United Nations need more and still more equipment and transportation. Success will come dearly, at the price of defeats and losses."

Roosevelt said lend-lease was a prime mechanism through which the United Nations were pooling their entire resources.

2 Felons, Dancer Held for Murder

New York, March 11—(AP)—Two ex-convicts and a dancer were charged today with the strangulation-slaying of wealthy Mrs. Susan Flora Reich, Polish refugee.

They were booked as John D. Cullen, Eli Shonburn and Madeline Webb and charged with homicide and "acting in concert in the homicidal death" of Mrs. Reich, whose body was found last Thursday in an East Side hotel where she had gone for a luncheon.

The trio was picked up yesterday and last night, first Cullen and then the other two after Cullen revealed their whereabouts. Police of 11 states had sought them since Saturday.

Shonburn, 33, and Miss Webb, 28, were taken into custody by Detective Lieutenant Daniel J. Mahoney in a Bronx rooming house. Mahoney said he found the stone from Mrs. Reich's $1,500 diamond ring under the former showgirl's pillow.

Miss Webb, who with Shonburn had been registered at the Hotel Sutton as "Mr. and Mrs. Ted Leopold" had been friendly with Mrs. Reich for two years and had invited her to luncheon on the day of the slaying.

Suspension of Illinois State Fair for Duration of War Seems Likely

Chicago, March 11.—(AP)—Suspension of the annual Illinois State Fair at Springfield for the duration of the war appeared likely today as steps were taken to turn over the 366-acre grounds to the army as a depot for storing supplies and training men to service damaged airplanes.

The governor said that county fairs would be encouraged throughout the state "and it is hoped that some plan may be devised whereby a state fair can be held some place other than Springfield."

The state fair has operated continuously since 1863 and the grounds represent an $80,000,000 investment.

Battle for Approaches to Australia On in Full Fury—Anzac Bombers Hit Heavy Blows

Churchill Reaffirms Pledge of Dominion Standing for India

Sir Stafford Cripps to Take Plan for Hindu Self-Government

By The Associated Press
London, March 11.—(AP)—Prime Minister Churchill repeated today Britain's promise of dominion status for imperilled India after the war and announced that his ranking aide, Sir Stafford Cripps, would go to India as an emissary to seek assurance that a precise plan already drafted by London would gain general Indian acceptance.

The promise of Indian self-government within the British commonwealth of nations after the war, first made in August, 1940, so far has failed to mollify Indian Nationalists.

But Churchill, in a long-awaited statement to the House of Commons, disclosed that the government, in order to "clothe these general declarations with precision and to convince all classes, races and creeds in India of our sincere resolve," had gone a step forward and agreed to a detailed plan.

He did not, however, disclose the exact nature of the concessions by which his government hopes to win the loyalty of India's 350,000,000 peoples for the defense of the rich sub-continent now threatened by the Japanese advance in Burma and to the Indian ocean.

"We should all serve the common cause if we made a declaration which would be rejected by essential elements in the Indian world and which would provoke fierce communal disputes at the moment when the enemy is at the gates of India," he said.

Sir Stafford, who has returned from the ambassadorship to Moscow to become Lord Privy Seal and who is known as a proponent of Indian self-government, has the task to procure in India "the necessary measure of assent, not only from the Hindu majority, but also from those great minorities amongst which the Moslems are the most numerous and on many grounds preeminent," Churchill announced.

Cabinet Struggle Indicated
"We must remember that India has a great part to play in the world struggle for freedom, and that her help must be extended in loyal comradeship to follow the Chinese people who have fought alone," he declared.

Churchill plainly indicated that the cabinet had struggled with a thorny problem, with the majority congress party in India demanding unconditional freedom for all India, and leaders of the Moslem minority, from whom Britain draws some of her best Indian fighting men, threatening on the other hand to revolt if they are not granted a special autonomous status if India is liberated.

The cabinet had reached conclusions as to how these clashing views could be reconciled while a new constitution is being set up, he said, but he did not disclose what they were.

The proposal also provided that India should have freedom and equality with the United Kingdom and other dominions under a constitution to be framed by the Indians themselves.

Sir Stafford, Churchill said, will satisfy himself during his visit by personal consultations that the conclusions on which the government had agreed are a final solution of the problem.

He said Sir Stafford also would confer with the commander in chief in India, General Sir Archibald P. Wavell.

Eden Will Substitute
Sir Stafford's place as leader of the house will be filled during his absence by Foreign Secretary

Not Wanted

Cleveland, March 11.—(AP)—Those who won't work aren't good enough to serve in the army, Lieut. Gen. Ben Lear declared today.

"I do not appreciate—nor does any soldier—the remarks we sometimes read when there is a strike; 'Make them work or fight.' The Second Army's commander said.

"The individual who is unwilling to work we don't want picked up and sent to us to combat troops. He isn't good enough. We don't want his spirit, and we don't want his presence."

An aide said the general's remarks—in a speech to the Cleveland advertising club—should not be interpreted as "passing judgment" upon strikers in general, but rather as an expression of resentment against the "work or fight" slogan as derogatory to the army.

Violent Pickets in Peoria Rail Strike Violate Court Writ
Peoria, Ill., March 11.—(AP)—Pickets from CIO and AFL unions blocked two freight trains from other railroads at the entrance of the Toledo, Peoria & Western Railroad's yards at East Peoria today.

A T. P. & W. train sped through the same picket line, however, forcing strikers and sympathizers to jump hurriedly from the path of the locomotive. The train was carrying guards and the engineer opened the throttle when an effort was made to flag him down.

Traffic on state highway 116 was blocked for more than half an hour when pickets argued with the crews of the other freights, which were from the Burlington and the Peoria & Pekin Union roads and were attempting to enter the T. P. & W. yards to transfer cargoes.

Pickets said they weren't making threats but wouldn't be responsible for trouble if the crews tried to take the freights into the strike-bound yards. The trains finally were backed away.

Violence Breaks Out
Violence broke out last night as CIO and AFL men reinforced railroad brotherhood pickets.

Rufus Clark, a fireman, suffered fractured ribs, loosened teeth and head cuts when he arrived at the railroad yards to leave on the 8 p. m. freight train. He was taken to a hospital.

Vernon Bailey, a CIO representative, said 100 CIO and AFL members had prevented employees from entering or leaving the yards. One dispatcher was permitted to leave unmolested.

The pickets massed at the main entrance of the yards at 6 p. m. and announced no one would be permitted to leave or enter. Witnesses estimated that about ten employees were virtual prisoners in the yards. They said the 8 p. m. freight train had not been able to leave because crew members had been barred.

Injunction Ignored
A federal court restraining order limits the brotherhoods to seven pickets at each of three entrances to the yards, but CIO representatives contended they weren't bound by terms of the injunction.

Earlier yesterday Federal Judge J. LeRoy Adair denied a petition by the brotherhoods asking that a party defying governmental authority should not be permitted to invoke its protection. The injunction also enjoined violence.

George P. McNear, Jr., president of the railroad, had refused to comply a compulsory arbitration order of the War Labor Board, contending that shipments of war orders were not being interfered with by the strike of 104 employees.

The strike on the 239-mile road operating between Effner, Ind., and Keokuk, Ia., started Dec. 28 in a dispute over wages and working conditions.

Ceiling on Prices of Old Tires and Tubes in Effect Monday Morning

Washington, March 11.—(AP)—The government has answered widespread complaints of price gouging with an order setting a ceiling on prices of used tires and tubes on the basis of prices prevailing between Oct. 1 and Oct. 15.

The ceiling becomes effective March 16. On standard four-ply 6.00 x 16 tires, the type used by most motorists, it varies from $8.10 to $15.50, depending on wear. The order prohibits dealers from adding any charges for repairs or service charges which were not made by the seller prior to March 7.

Enemy U-Boats Sink Merchant Ship Four Miles Off Barnegat

Submarines' Attacks in Western Atlantic Are Becoming Brazen

New York, March 11.—(AP)—Ever bolder and swifter in their attacks, axis submarines have sunk two ships in nearby waters in as many days.

In the latest and most brazen approach to the east coast since the United States entered the war, an enemy submersible with one well-aimed torpedo split in half the 6,766-ton Gulf Oil tanker Gulftrade early yesterday less than four miles off Barnegat, N. J.

Some time earlier, between 7 and 7:30 p. m. Sunday, either the same raider or another with an aim almost as good blew asunder the 5,152-ton Brazilian cargo-passenger vessel Cayru about 130 miles off Ambrose Light, beacon for New York harbor.

The two sinkings, numbers 28 and 29 on the officially announced list of ships sent to the bottom off the U. E. east coast, apparently resulted in heavy loss of life, with a total of 78 still missing.

Sixteen of the 35-man crew of the Gulftrade were picked up by coast guard boats and landed safely at Tompkinsville, Staten Island, while 22 of 75 seamen and four of 10 passengers were rescued from the Cayru.

The captain of the Gulftrade, Troger Olsen, of Port Arthur, Tex., said his ship was struck a few minutes after he had ordered the running lights put on "in order to avoid a collision with two ships ahead of us."

Cruised Between Halves
One of seven survivors, who remained aboard the stern half of the split tanker until rescued, Chief Engineer Guy F. Chadwick, said that after bisecting the Gulftrade the submarine impudently cruised back and forth between the halves for 30 to 45 minutes, before disappearing.

"When she came cruising in between the bow and stern," he related, "the men called her names that you couldn't print."

The Third Naval District said it took two torpedoes to sink the Cayru, the first failing to explode. It was the fourth Brazilian ship to be lost in American waters and the government of

Sentiment Grows for Tax on Sales

Washington, March 11.—(AP)—The house ways and means committee, trying to raise at least $7,000,000,000 new revenue, called on treasury officials today for all available statistics on the sales tax.

Sentiment for some kind of a sales levy appeared to be growing among congressmen. Some members took open exception to Secretary Morgenthau's program which calls for raising $7,610,000,000 chiefly through stiffer individual income taxes and corporation levies, and from new excise taxes.

Morgenthau and many treasury officials have expressed their opposition to a sales tax, contending among other things that it would be inequitable and inflationary.

W. J. Chieffelin, Jr., chairman of the New York State Chamber of Commerce, proposed yesterday that congress raise $4,000,000,000 through a graduated retail sales tax and $1,000,000,000 from higher income taxes, with the other $2,610,000,000 of President Roosevelt's $7,610,000,000 program being deferred until fall.

Chieffelin recommended that a 2 or 3 percent rate be imposed on food, and at least 10 percent on higher-priced articles, with an average of about 5 percent.

Lottery

Washington, March 11.—(AP)—Selective service officials today set 5 p. m. Central War Time, as the hour for starting March 17 the draft lottery which will determine the order of liability for service of an estimated 9,000,000 men who registered February 16.

Officials said that Secretary of War Stimson had been asked to draw the first capsule in the lottery, the third since enactment of the selective service law, but the first since war was declared.

President Roosevelt, who drew the first number in the first lottery, will not attend the third drawing.

All the February 16 registrants—men aged 20 to 44 inclusive who had not previously registered—now are being assigned serial numbers. Capsules bearing these numbers will be drawn in the lottery from a gold fish bowl and the order in which they are drawn will determine the registrant's order number.

Japs Claim Third U. S. Cruiser Sent Down in Java Fight

Tokyo (from Japanese Broadcasts) March 11.—(AP)—Imperial headquarters declared today that a Japanese cruiser squadron operating in the Indian ocean west of Australia had sunk the United States cruiser Marblehead.

The sinking was said to have occurred March 2.

A Japanese destroyer, the announcement added, sank the Dutch minesweeper Jan Van Mastel between Bali and Java on March 9.

On March 7, it said, a Japanese naval unit shelled Christmas Island, a British possession in the Indian ocean south of Java, "causing heavy damage" to military installations.

The 7,050-ton Marblehead was the third United States cruiser claimed by the Japanese as sunk during the battle of Java without any corroboration from other sources.

The others were the Augusta and Houston, both of 9,050 tons, and it was possible that with all three the Japanese were issuing

Examiner Urges Bus Service Princeton-to-Bureau in His Report

Chicago, March 11.—(AP)—The empty Rock Island Motor Transit Company buses traveling the eight-mile route between Bureau and Princeton, Ill. may soon be carrying paying passengers.

The company is authorized to carry passengers between Bureau and Peoria, but not between Bureau and Princeton, although its buses are garaged at Princeton.

Examiner George Anderson of the Illinois Commerce Commission said yesterday, after a hearing that he would recommend that the commission authorize the company to carry passengers between Bureau and Princeton, which has no other public transportation southward. The service was sought by residents of Princeton.

Casualty

Chicago, March 11.—(AP)—Add to the list of deprivations caused by the war: Chewing gum, of which there will probably be 20 percent less this year than in 1941.

Philip K. Wrigley, president of Wm. Wrigley Jr. Company, large manufacturer of the sold stockholders in the company's annual report today that "the necessity of putting sugar, one of our principal ingredients, on a quota basis, will prevent us from increasing our sales volume beyond the quota allowed, which at present is 80 percent of 1941 production."

Rockford Man Confesses Murder of Spouse at Behest of His Children

Rockford, Ill., March 11.—(AP)—Horace Turner put the question of his confession up to a jury of five of his seven children, a prosecutor said, and after each had assented, the father declared:

"I killed your mother because she didn't deserve to live."

The dramatic scene was enacted last night in the Winnebago county building, State's Attorney Max Weston reported. Turned, 51, insisted upon seeing the children, ranging in age from 8 to 16 years. When they were brought before him, he said, according to Weston:

"I want to tell you I did it. I also want to ask you if I should tell all. If I do I'll go to jail. Or I can keep saying I didn't do it and make it hard for the police. What do you want me to do?"

"Tell the truth, Daddy," they urged.

7 Enemy Warships Sunk or Damaged, Australian Claim

Aerial Counter - Blows Against Japanese Continue Today

By ROGER D. GREENE
Associated Press War Editor

Australian bombers struck smashing blows at Japanese warships today and claimed to have sunk or damaged at least seven, but unofficial reports said the enemy's great invasion-bent convoys continued moving toward their eventual jumping-off bases in New Guinea.

It seemed clear that the battle for the approaches to Australia was now raging in full fury.

Hitting their hardest blows of the war on the gathering Japanese invasion armada, Australian airmen were reported to have sunk at least two ships and left five others beached, battered and burned.

Three waves of RAFF bombers pounded the Japanese fleet yesterday and the aerial counter-blows were continuing today.

British dispatches from Canberra said Japanese invasion fleets were reported moving toward Port Moresby, on the south coast of New Guinea, 300 miles from the Australian mainland.

Australian planes were said to be continuously attacking the enemy ships.

Tokyo Warns Australia
A bulletin from Royal Australian Air Force headquarters said waves of Australian bombers inflicted havoc on the Japanese sea-borne forces, in yesterday's raids, attacking a cruiser, setting two ships afire, leaving another "large ship" burning, and scoring several direct hits on a warship.

A series of follow-up attacks "recorded further hits and near misses," the communique said.

"When the aircraft left the target area (from the final attack) one ship was burned out and three others were on fire. Two of them were sinking and one was being beached," the account said.

Other hits were believed to have raised the toll still higher.

In Tokyo, apparently unmasking Japan's next move, a government spokesman warned Australia to yield without a fight or suffer "the same fate that has befallen Singapore and Java."

On other fronts in the Far Pacific:

Other Developments
1. With signs pointing toward an early Japanese attack on India, Prime Minister Churchill in London held out to India's 400,000,000 a promise of dominion status in full as soon after the war as possible.

Churchill also announced that Sir Stafford Cripps, Britain's energetic Lord Privy Seal and government spokesman in the House of Commons, would go to India for consultation with leaders there who have been clamoring for immediate independence as the price for India's support in the war.

2. In the dying battle of Java, a Domei dispatch said the Dutch commander, Lieut. Gen. Hein ter Poorten, had ordered all Netherlands troops on the island to lay down their arms.

Imperial Tokyo headquarters asserted that the Japanese had captured 93,000 troops, including

Auxiliary Firemen of Dixon See Incendiary Bomb Demonstration

A dozen members of the Civilian Defense fire fighting force witnessed the demonstration of the action of an incendiary bomb at the fire department headquarters last evening. Commissioner Carl Tyler of the department of public health and safety has obtained several of these types of bombs and the demonstrations and instructions in combating fires caused by incendiary bombs is being given by Fire Chief Sam Cramer.

The auxiliary firemen last evening were instructed in the best methods of extinguishing fire caused by this type of bombs, the best recognized method being that of a fine spray of water and the next best method by the use of dry sand. They were warned against the using of many types of fire extinguishers which create a poisonous gas and also warned not to use heavy streams of water, which spread the flames.

Chief Cramer explained that the fires caused by the bombs cannot be immediately extinguished. The next meeting of the auxiliary firemen will be held at the city hall on March 24.

Anthony Eden.

The crisis in the affairs of India as a result of the Japanese advance, he declared, has made Britain wish to rally all the forces of Indian life to free the land from the menace of the invader.

He said Cripps would be sent to India as a representative of the war cabinet.

Sir Stafford volunteered to go and will leave "as soon as convenient and (as soon as) arrangements can be made", Churchill added.

WOMAN'S CLUB IS BRINGING INTERNATIONALLY-RENOUNDED ARTIST TO DIXON, SATURDAY

This nation was not at war when the Dixon Woman's club year-book was sent to press last autumn, and Stephen Deutch of Chicago, internationally renowned fashion photographer, was scheduled to address the clubwomen on "Art and Photography". Since then, bombs have been dropped by enemy hands on American soil and American ships—it's wartime again. And so, when Mr. Deutch comes to the Woman's club lecture platform Saturday afternoon at the Loveland Community House, his lecture theme will be "Photography and Art and War."

Today, in his early 30's, Mr. Deutch ranks among the great figures in the field of photography. In 1929, he was a sculptor on the continent. In Paris, his wife, Helene, a (professional photographer), persuaded him to take up the craft. There followed a trip to America and the establishment of a studio.

With the attitude of the sculptor, Deutch went into photography. His pictures are sculptural rather than picturesque, critics say. In his work, he strives to capture the subject's reality in strong composition, making use of deep shadows, abrupt angles, hard contrasts and highlights.

Mr. Deutch was a member of the distinguished jury weighing the relative merits of personality, posture and poise of eight lovely Chicago girls, finalists in the "Miss Outdoor America" contest at the close of the International Sportsman's show, earlier in the month. He is a member of the Chicago Society of Photographic Illustrators, his photographic creations having won acclaim here and abroad. He is also a member of the board of directors for the Art Center of Chicago, and is contributor to Coronet Magazine.

Mrs. Z. Glatter's art department has arranged for Saturday's program. Her committee includes Miss Edna Decker, Mrs. Robert Dixon, Mrs. H. A. Lazier, Mrs. Mrs. Louis Sinow, and Mrs. E. E. Wingert.

Mrs. F. J. Trautwein is hostess chairman for the day. Assisting her will be Mrs. L. H. McClenden, Mrs. H. J. McCoy, Mrs. J. R. McDaniel, Mrs. E. V. Mellott, Mrs. Edwin W. Merrick, Jr., Mrs. Norman Miller, Mrs. L. W. Miller, Mrs. Joe E. Miller, Mrs. M. M. Miller, Mrs. John W. Mills, Mrs. H. A. Moore, Miss Fannie A. Murphy, Mrs. W. G. Murray, Mrs. George Nettz, Mrs. H. RONALD REAGAN JOINS ACTOR-SCRIPTER GROUP; EXPECTS TO STAR IN HIS OWN BATAAN FILM

Actors who turn author are becoming numerous, according to Edwin Schallert, Los Angeles Times columnist. George Murphy, Jean Gabin, who wants to do a biographical story of Mistinguette, Brian Donlevy, Leslie Howard and various others have ideas along that line. And now it's Ronald Reagan (the former Dixtonite of Lowell park life-guard fame) who gets aboard the scripting tram with zip.

Reagan is developing a story at considerable speed to submit to Warner Bros. under the title of "They Ride to Glory," that will concern cavalry in the Philippines which got cut off from the main Gen. MacArthur forces and tura into a guerrilla band, fighting the Japanese from behind their lines on the Bataan peninsula.

Reagan's picture script is not simply to be an authorship contribution; he also wants to star in the film, because of his experience as a horseman.

A Thought for Today

In the house of the righteous is much

Earth I no longer see, yet trustfully my spirit looks to Thee.—Alice Bradley Neal.

They're T-O-U-G-H

Americans have had some funny ideas. They would go around saying "The bigger they come the harder they fall" at the same time they were telling each other that America couldn't be licked because she was too big and powerful, that man for man the Japs didn't have a chance because they were small and Americans were big guys.They would declare that America never could lose a war because America never had lost a war.
Of course they didn't mention the fact that Japan also was an undefeated champ. And they forgot Japan never had been invaded, which is more than can be said for the United States.These illusory ideas and pat ratings have now been pretty well disabused. Let's hope we haven't lost them too late. We should have lost them a long time ago.Writing in the current Infantry Journal, Maj.
Harold Doud, U. S. A., tells of the training that has made the Japanese such tough soldiers. Major Doud spent six months in 1934-35 as a guest officer of the second company, seventh regular infantry of the Imperial Japanese army. That autumn the company held its "dog days" training. Quoting from Major Doud's article:"The 12-day autumn exercises were divided into three four-day exercises. . . . One day we marched 37 miles. Twice the troops went three days and two nights without sleep except what could be snatched during 10-minute halts and brief lulls in the situation."The last four-day period was the most strenuous. We started out at 5 in the morning and marched almost continuously until 10 the next morning. In that time we covered 56 miles. The same night everyone was occupied with outpost duty and patrol. . . ."Why not let some of them sleep?" I asked the captain. "Oh, no," he said. "That is not necessary.
They already know how to sleep. They need training in how to stay awake."These tough little yellow men were even then getting ready to fight us fat and sassy Americans.
While we were calling them soft touches, they were driving to make themselves so hard that in due time we would turn out to be the soft touches.

ORDERS FROM VIENNA

CHAPTER XXV

THE next afternoon Mr. Patterson
Lawes at the Burton County Bank carefully polished his glasses and reread the cablegram that had been handed to him.Mr. Carter, the assistant cashier, came out of the vault. "What's up?""That young Mitchell—trying to be a fool."
"Yes?""Cabled orders to turn over that —you know, the Tower estate that was left to him, to Drake Mc-Hugh."Randy adjusted the window shade, poked the fire, and made small rustling noises.Drake spoke finally. "It's no use, Randy, you've got to talk to me sooner or later. Might as well be now.""How would you like it if something happened to Parris and he didn't let you know?"Drake hesitated. "I don't know.
I hadn't thought of it.""Well, it's the same thing.
Drake, he's your best friend."Drake picked up the message from the counterpane. He had almost worn it out since yesterday reading and rereading it."Gee, he's a great friend, Randy."

"Of course."

"But . . .
"But what now? What?""This last sentence."
"Yes, I know. What about it?""You and Randy stick together till I get there. We'll work everything out.""I know it by heart," she said softly."Of course he doesn't understand."

"Doesn't understand what?"

"What are you driving at, Drake?"

She waited. He did not notice how pale she had become."I tell you, Randy, I—I remembered that if you had just a little money there—" His voice faded."I've heard there was homes you could get into—maybe.""Would you—would you deliberately treat me that way, and Parris, too?"

"I—I don't—"

Drake was looking at Randy with an expression half desperate with his own emotion, and half a puzzled concern for her."Then listen carefully. Whatever you say, or however you feel —it's you and me hereafter—together—somehow."The expression went out of Drake's face.

"I want you to trust yourself

Major Doud saw the Japs toughening up in 1934-35. The question can fairly be asked: has his story been told before? If not, why not? The Infantry Journal might have rendered a service to the Army and to the nation by carrying this story in every issue of the past seven or eight years.
The bigger they come the harder they fall.

Our Way Could Be Simpler

This is the first time in history in which the United States has been at war with two major powers simultaneously.In the Revolutionary war we had the British at a disadvantage, because they had to fight us from across the ocean while we were on our own bases —such as these bases were. Furthermore, the British were engaged in hostilities with the French at the same time.The War of 1812 was along similar lines.
Our Civil war was fought at home—an industrialized north against an agricultural south. It has been reported that just before the Civil war began, a southern gentleman boasted that the south could "lick" the north with cornstalks. Later, after Lee surrendered, this man was reminded of his boast. Far from being abashed, the braggart declared he had been right; that the south could have licked the north with cornstalks. "But," he said, "the trouble was that the Damyankees wouldn't fight with cornstalks."The war with Spain was over quickly, and with decisive results. It was fought against a single power.The World War, while against Germany and Austria-Hungary, was in effect a struggle against a two-headed power which could be got at by approaching central Europe. Turkey hardly counted.Today, if we were at war against either Japan or Germany singly, we could make plans accordingly. Much has been made of the point that the best defense is an offensive—and that is the truth.
But if we make a hard drive at Japan we must of necessity ignore Germany in part at least. If we go at Germany and ignore Japan, the Japs will make hay while the rising sun shines. We are not as yet equipped to make a major war against Japan in the west while making another major war against Germany in the east. Such an effort will take more shipping, more navy and more armies than we have at this time.If we are going to attack one or the other, which shall have the honor of being defeated by us first. Or shall we continue on the defensive until approximately 1946 or 1947, when we shall be prepared to tackle both ends of the axis at once?At the moment it appears that Russia is taking good care of the German threat. It is too soon, however, to forget Germany and assume that the Reds have got the Hitler gang all but buried. Until Hitler actually is defeated we must pretend that he is vastly dangerous, and continue selling or giving tanks and planes to Stalin.In view of such a complicated picture it is easy to understand why the tactics thus far have been vast and intricate, and strategic details should be largely defensive. The business of making war is left in the hands of those who have made a lifetime study of strategy.It is safe to assume that both the army and navy have made detailed plans for a campaign against Japan, for example. When we are equipped to put those plans into effect, Americans may feel assured that action will be started, and that it will succeed.The Rev. H. R. Zager, pastor of

BEHIND
THE NEWS
By PAUL MALLON(Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc., reproduction in whole or in part strictly prohibited.)Washington, March 11—Congress is handling the Morgenthau tax program as an incendiary bomb. It is advancing slowly with black glasses, and overcoat on backwards, looking for a sandbox.On their private pads, ways and means committees have discovered the total tax on some corporations would run from 65 to 80 per cent. One senator figures that if General Motors earned $240,000-000, it would be lucky to have half of it ($120,000,000) for dividends, which would mean a sharp cut in earnings distribution.Most of the taxmaking legislators think the income rates proposed are far too high to maintain popular enthusiasm. Nor do they like the substitute ideas of a sales tax or a withholding tax any better.This overall dissent is too widespread to warrant any predictions on the final form of the bill yet.Drooping of the stock market, in the face of this tax threat, again raises a fine question of government publicity emphasis and public morale. In the last war, decline of the stock market would have been considered a bad sign.
Public confidence was supposed to follow the market.Not so now. Most administration authorities discredit the stock market as an influence on public opinion on the ground that stocks are narrowly held.That may be, but the government is also relying on sheer patriotism, unstimulated by any direct personal interest, to sponsor enthusiasm for the war effort in many other ways (crowding of little business, prices, rationing sugar, tires, labor's priorities).Abandoning the old profit motive for stimulating of the utmost national productive energy and enthusiasm, the question arises as to whether an adequate substitute has been provided to furnish the same full spur. Is personal incentive being blunted? Is the maximum driving force of the nation being maintained?No one here seems worried.
They expect to get the production job done better than planned. Yet the cumulative effects on the public mind of the peculiar new hope-killing ways in which the government, through necessity, is going about the purely non-military aspects of this war, may be a subject for investigation by Mac-Leish.Wrath is rising in the war department at delay in getting new airfields started. Weeks and months after the decision to build them has been announced. Temperature around Air Corps headquarters here is so high that the staff has been warned, upon threat of courtmartial, not to talk.All types of red tape, resulting from conflicting authority between the air corps and engineers, is responsible in some instances.
Projects involved:
Rapid City, Pueblo, Klamath Falls, Richmond (Va.), Topeka,
Lampco Maria (Cal.), Greenville
(S. C.), Hattiesburg (Miss), Fort Worth, Spokane.Congress appropriates money for the fields and then the army decides the exact site. This decision is generally announced through senators and representatives in order that they may get publicity back home.But politics about the choice of local land sometimes becomes involved. Then the air corps and engineers are supposed to inspect the site and agree on installations but agreement has not been easy.It has been four months since the Greenville project was announced, three months since Lam-poco Maria, two since Pueblo, Rapid City and Richmond—yet work has not started.In another case, the army planned a field at Vero Beach, Florida, but the navy claimed this was too near one of its fields, and forced the army to move 25 miles south to Ft. Pierce.Births

HEARD 'N' SEEN

FALSELY ACCUSED . . . many sport scribes unjustly tagged the Eureka Green Hornet Cagers as the Sectional Champs before the tourney ever started . . . many believed Eureka was rated by the Illinois Athletic Association as a likely member of the "Sweet Sixteen" and so gave her an easy bracket in which to play . . . these same scribes retort today with "Dixon Upsets Eureka" . . . and we reply that the Dukes definitely did not upset Eureka . . . they beat them by outplaying them with a superior type of ball that has characterized them for the most part of the season . . . Eureka, nevertheless, has one swell ball team and deserves all the credit given her; her only handicap being that she had no fast break style but relied slowly on slow break . . . the Dukes realized the Eureka flaw during the first half and as a result used a fast break through the second half which demoralized the Hornet Cagers . . .

BUS AGAIN . . . a bus will be chartered again to make the trip to Ottawa Thursday night when the Dukes face Spring Valley in the semi-finals . . . it is scheduled to leave with its load of Duke fans at 5:15 p. m. from the Chamber of Commerce building . . . Frank Randall is the instigator of this bus chartering business and deserves a lot of credit for the idea because many fans might otherwise not see the Dukes in action in the Sectional tourney . . .

WITH THE DELAY . . . on the bus trip to Ottawa last night, Bob Hill suddenly lost his normal composure and in a very unmanly way yelped at the bus driver, "stop this thing" . . . the driver complied, but somewhat chagrined at the delay . . . and before the door could be opened Bob almost went through it unopened . . . when he cleared the bus without using the facility of a step he was last seen headed for a little red school house . . . he returned soon but to now no one seems to understand his unusual behavior . . . tomorrow night the bus driver is planning out a different route so he'll avoid the little red school . . .

HARD HEARTED . . . when a boy is removed from a basketball game via the four personals route . . . and his team's margin isn't so great . . . he generally sits down on a bench in the dressing room and sobs and cries until the blighted feeling runs itself out . . . but not so with Johnny Loftus, for he was removed from the fray last night with four fouls against him . . . in the showers after the game Johnny spoke up, "ya know fellas there must be something wrong with me for I just can't cry" . . .

BIRTHDAY PRESENT . . . Cy Shank got the birthday present for which he was pulling yesterday; namely, a victory over Eureka . . . and let us tell you fans that Cy really earned it for his ball playing in that second half last night was nothing short of being spectacular . . . he followed in aggressively, handled the ball to top grade perfection and covered the floor like a wizard . . .

I WASN'T SCARED . . . the Eureka fans, who were seated immediately behind us during last night's game, soon noted that Frankie Leeper was going to be an awful thorn in their side if something drastic weren't done . . . so the frenzied fans from Eureka began chorusing, whenever Frankie got his mitts on the ball . . . Stop him! Get him! . . . Trip him! . . . Knock 'em down! . . . Boooooo Shorty! . . . but we know that Frankie was too interested in the game to even understand what was being yelled . . . nevertheless we imagine that it wouldn't take Frankie long to completely wilt away if put in front of that crowd with nothing to do but listen to those profundo baritones crying for his hide.

GOOD FOLLOWING . . . at least two hundred fans followed the Dukes to Ottawa last night to witness the opening of the Sectional tourney in that City . . . we'd like to mention everyone's name that we got to hail but that would deplete too much space and would shorten our blabbering which would never end . . . we take our hat off today to the Duke fans for not blowing their tops and letting off boooooing steam as was characterized by the Eureka mob . . . Bill Witzleb, who is attending Bradley at Peoria, journeyed over to watch the triumphant Dukes last night . . . while we were grabbing a quick snack in the Green Mill before game time a number of fans sauntered in to appease their appetites . . . Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hilliker, Mr. and Mrs. Wally Hicks . . . Willard Jones, Bill Loftus, Mark Smith and Mark Junior . . . Dick Haley . . . Em Rorer, Al Petit, Randy Werf and Junior Joyce . . . B. J. I am trakin him down and promise to reveal his tru identity won weak from tuesday—March 18 . . . BIG LEAGUERS . . . down in Orlando Florida yesterday the Yankees met Boston of the American league. Coach Lindell's cousin, John Lindell, was one of four pitchers used by the Yankees in beating the Boston club 3 to 1 and allowing them only five hits in the nine innings, which is pretty good early season hurling . . . Nelson Potter of Mount Morris was one of three pitchers appearing on the mound for the Boston team . . .

Coach L. E. Sharpe's Dixon Dukes, after playing a rugged and bewildered first-half against Eureka in the Ottawa Sectional tourney, came back with a well functioning fast-break to defeat the so-called "Little Giants" by the score of 32 to 23.

In the second game of the evening Hall high of Spring Valley beat back a plucky Granville team by the count of 38 to 33. Hall had a real scare in the fourth quarter as Granville tied the game up but Dubberstein and Riva collected points for Hall which put the game on ice for the Valley cagers.

The Dukes will play again Thursday night at 7:30 when they face Hall high in the semi-finals. Games tonight will start at 7:30 with St. Paul of Odell and Kewanee in the first encounter and LaSalle-Peru and Wenona playing the second game.

Dukes Fooled
The Eureka Green Hornets completely baffled the Dixon Dukes in the first half with a slow break style of ball. It was this type of ball that must have vanquished some of the formidable foes which toppled before the Green Hornets; for the old-fashioned slow break does at times completely baffle a fast breaking team.

Eureka outscored the Dukes 9 to 7 in the first quarter. The game was also slow and reminded us of the basketball that was played twelve years ago. The Dukes attempted at different times to step up the pace but Eureka set its defense in such a hurry that most of the Dukes shots were long ones and wild at that. The Dukes scored in the first period on two baskets by Leeper, one by Shank, and a charity point by Reynolds.

The second quarter was as uninteresting as the first for the same old slow pace kept surviving and it looked rather dismal for the Dukes because Eureka gained more margin by outdoing them in this frame 5 to 3. Leeper scored a goal for the Dukes in this stanza and Reynolds added another free one. Eureka had a total lead of 14 to 10 at the end of the half.

Third Quarter Changes
The game's complexion took an opposite hue in the third period as the Dukes uncorked their fast break and played their own style of ball instead of eating out of the Eureka hand of plays. The highly touted Green Hornets attempted to hold order with its slow break but the shooting odds were against them as the Dukes performed in field day style.

Leeper hit two buckets in a hurry after the third period got underway and Loftus added a free shot which put the Dukes in the lead at 15 to 14. Reynolds added another free point, and then tipped in a goal. Eureka scored a point on Reynolds' foul which was the only scoring she did in the third period. Shank counted on a free one and then hit a goal and Leeper scored another goal as the period ended. The Dukes outscored Eureka in the stanza 13 to 1 and from hereon held a respectable margin over the Hornets until the final gun.

In the fourth frame the Dukes outscored Eureka 9 to 8 as Reynolds got hot and scored three goals and one free point and Knack added a beauty from the coffin corner. This gave the Dukes their victory of 32 to 23 over Eureka.

Nice Job
The Dukes, after catching onto the Hornet system of play, displayed a beautiful brand of ball to prove to everyone decidedly that it takes more than just a surprising slow-break to win a ball game from a team who refuses to play the same type.

Leeper and Reynolds shared scoring honors last night as each tallied 12 points. Shank played a bang up floor game, stopped Hornet scoring threats time after time, and was the most instrumental man in aiding their pace of play in the third quarter which ultimately netted them a victory. Johnny Loftus and Jo VanMeter did a superb job of fighting and scrapping for ball control off the Hornet backboard which stopped the rangy Eureka front-wall from doing any follow-up scoring; these two guards also covered nicely as

Corn Sugar Might Be Substituted for the Curing of Meat

Farmers and locker plant operators who are having difficulty obtaining enough sugar for meat curing can substitute corn sugar in part for cane sugar.

For curing hams and shoulders in dry cure, Sleeter Bull, professor of meats at the University of Illinois College of Agriculture, recommends 8 pounds of salt, 3 pounds of sugar and 3 ounces of saltpeter for 100 pounds of meat. For curing hams and shoulders in brine, he recommends 12 pounds of salt, 3 pounds of sugar and 5 ounces of saltpeter in 6 gallons of water for 100 pounds of meat. Just as good or better results may be obtained if 1½ pounds of cane sugar and 1½ pounds of corn sugar or 1½ pounds of corn syrup are used in these cures.

Bull explained that corn sugar or syrup will give meat a better color than cane sugar alone in both the brine and dry cures. The syrup will make the cure stick better to dry-cured meat.

Corn sugar or syrup can only be used in small amounts, 10 percent of the total sugar, in curing bacon, as they are not nearly so sweet as cane sugar and cause the bacon to turn brown when cooked.

Detailed instructions for curing meat may be obtained free from the college's department of animal husbandry.

Los Angeles Hears Two Raid Alerts Today

Los Angeles, March 11—(AP)—Air raid wardens and emergency units were mobilized shortly before dawn today by an alert order. The fourth interceptor command gave an all-clear signal an hour and six minutes later without decreeing a general blackout.

In San Francisco, the western defense command said an "unidentified object" caused a preliminary, or "yellow," alert at 5:49 a. m. (7:49 a. m. CWT). This was changed to a "blue" alert at 6:03 a. m. The "blue" signal mobilizes all emergency agencies and silences radio broadcasting stations.

The "yellow" alert was effective from Santa Barbara to San Diego counties, the "blue" only in Los Angeles and its neighboring counties on the north and south, Ventura and Orange.

Radio stations returned to the air at 8 a. m.

Many Favorites Are Eliminated In State Sectionals Last Eve

Dixon Victory Called An Upset Over Eureka Team

(By The Associated Press)
Undeclared Paris and Little Sheldon high school, whose records are among the most envied in the State, led a parade of favorites safely through the opening barrage of sectional basketball activity last night.

Paris swamped Tuscola, 50 to 22, for its 34th consecutive victory. Sheldon, which has an enrollment of only 39 students, also scored its 34th triumph against one defeat. However, Sheldon was pushed by Morris until the last three minutes when Elmer Clawson produced a flurry of points that settled the issue, 37 to 27.

Other victors included Decatur, winner of 29 games in 33 starts, Cathedral of Springfield (25-3), Mt. Vernon (26-4), Olney (24-4) and Hebron (21-6).

Bidding for similar first round successes tonight will be such notchers as Streator, Centralia, Quincy, Johnston City, West Frankfort and Taylorville and more than half a dozen "Little Giants," including New Berlin and Waterman, beaten but twice, and Bowen, loser of only one game.

Morton of Cicero, defending champion and still in the running despite a one point setback in the regional finals, attempts a comeback against Waukegan.

The two surprises last night probably were the reverses suffered by Homer and Eureka, both highly regarded smaller schools and both regional winners.

Homer, which had a record of 27 wins and four defeats, lost to Vandalia in an overtime, 36 to 32, after leading most of the game. Likewise, Eureka held an edge over DIXON until the third quarter when DIXON went on to win 32 to 23.

Hebron's victory last night, a none too easy 26-22 conquest of Rochelle, was the 84th triumph against 12 losses in the last three seasons under Coach Ed Willett. Hebron, a regional runner up, lost to Dundee in the regional finals.

Another "Little Giant" with a similar three year record is Hoopston, winner of 71 games against eight defeats under Coach Glen Brasel. Winner of its own district and beaten only three times in 26 starts, Hoopston will face Danville tonight. Danville does not have an exceptional record but is one of the few teams that owns a victory over Thornton of Harvey.

Beware Coughs from common colds That Hang On Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm, and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. Tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough or you are to have your money back.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.

Wide World Sports Columnist

New York, March 11—The New York track writers would like to put on an indoor meet March 25 for the benefit of the Navy Relief Society, but they won't try it unless Les MacMittell, Greg Rice and Gil Dodds can run . . . Harry Hillman's Dartmouth show is scheduled the 24th and the Cleveland K of C games the 27th so there may be difficulties. . . Pitt probably will follow the Big Ten lead and schedule football games against service teams in addition to the eight college games already on the program.

Secret Thoughts—

After Sammy Secret, the Pittsburgh welterweight, kicked Vic Dellicurti recently, he was offered a bout with Ray Robinson as a reward . . . "A reward is it?" Manager Tom Walsh exclaimed. "If you don't mind I'll take a few weeks to look up the meaning of that word."

Spring Training—

Hank Greenberg, now stationed in Florida, is preparing to enter an officers training school . . . Six years ago Tommy Holmes, a Brooklyn schoolboy, wanted to become a Dodger so he could play the outfield with Johnny Cooney. This year he and Cooney are teammates on the Braves . . . In spite of reports about the dough Burt Shotton will get for coaching the Indians, Detroit papers say Charley Gehring will be the highest-paid coach this season.

One Minute Sports Page—

Publicity for the basketball game here Friday between Lincoln and Howard Universities describes them as "The Yale and Harvard of negro colleges." They have carried on continuous sports competition since 1894 . . . Billy Weber has taken speedboy Johnny Rucker under his wing and says he can teach John to steal 40 bases this year . . . Ex-jockey Saron "Sam" Coule, whose kid brother Nick is a star rider at Tropical Park, works around racetracks now as an artist. His water colors and pen-and-ink drawings have attracted a lot of attention.

Hi Ya, Joe—

Joe Louis never received a finer tribute than the one paid him by Corp. Chick Pozak of Waterbury, Conn., in a letter to Hank O'Donnell of the Waterbury Republican, Chick wrote: "The other day I was walking along one of the highways here in Fort Dix and in the Red Cross building I saw Joe Louis. Didn't receive his autograph, but I did sneak into the kitchen and introduced myself to him with a good handshake exchanged. Really, Hank, it was a thrill."

TRAINING CAMP BRIEFS

(By The Associated Press)
Lakeland, Fla.—The Detroit Tigers play their fourth and final intrasquad game today with Virgil (Firi) Trucks, Lynwood (Schoolboy) Rowe, Hal White and Earl Cook slated to pitch. Coach Merv Shea's Lambs and Coach Charley Gehring's Wolves each have won a contest and a third was tied.

St. Petersburg, Fla.—The contract and sinus trouble which delayed Frank Crespi's appearance in the St. Louis camp apparently left no ill effects. As proof, the star second baseman, on his third day in camp, played the full nine innings as the Cards beat the Cincinnati Reds, 5 to 3, yesterday.

Tampa, Fla.—Hank Sauer, the rookie first baseman who is being converted into an outfielder, displayed some of the stickwork expected of him yesterday as the Cincinnati Reds won over the St. Louis Cardinals. Sauer singled, doubled and tripled in four at-bats.

Avalon, Calif.—Manager Jimmy Wilson says the Chicago Cubs will be out to take every game from the White Sox in the exhibition series starting Friday. "The Sox will face our best in every game," he said, "the experimenting will be done against other National League clubs."

Myers & Nolan Bowlers Come Out Of Slump To Win

Fordham Paces Reynolds To Victory Over Mailmen

The Myers and Nolan keggers crawled out of their mire of defeat which has been sucking them in for the past two weeks by defeating the Myers Royal Blue bowlers in three straight games and thereby increasing their hold on first place in the City Bowling League. R. Hoyle rolled a 595 to lead the Clothiers in scoring and Smith was high for the Royal Blue with a 517 series.

The Reynolds Wire bowlers defeated the Post Office in two out of three sessions but the Mailmen, due to their previous margin of wins, were able to hang onto second place in the league standings. Fordham paced the Wire team victory run with a 523 series. Tilton was high man for the Post Office with a 554 series.

The Three Deuces, becoming aggravated by their lowly standing in the league, mercilessly thumped the Blackhawk bowlers in three straight games. Phillips fronted the Deuces' onslaught with a 506 series. McGraham bowled high for the Blackhaws with a 486 series.

The Strub and Schultz bowlers won two games from the Meister Brau team. Hanson was high scorer for the Strub team with a 481 series. R. Potter rolled the high count for the Meister Brau team with a 434 series.

Care Should Be Taken in Garden Seeds Selection

If vegetables are to stand for victory this summer, good sound seed must go into the ground at planting time, declares L. A. Somers, associate in vegetable gardening extension, University of Illinois College of Agriculture. This calls for seed varieties which are vigorous and uniform and judged the best of their kind. On the basis of variety trials conducted at the University of Illinois and elsewhere, recommended varieties are listed in a recent publication, "Varieties of Vegetables for the Better Home Garden." This booklet is available, free of charge from the extension service in agriculture and home economics of the college. "In the case of some vegetables, size, shape or color is the important consideration; in others, it is earliness of maturity. In tomatoes, sweet corn, watermelon, cabbage and related crops, of which there are definitely disease resistant varieties, it is very desirable to obtain seeds of these varieties." Good, edible quality, Somers went on to say, is always important, and high yield is always desirable.

City officials have been requested by government representatives to have all available rooms and apartments for rent listed with a central agency and to greatly encourage the use of additional rooms and apartments not heretofore classified.

A scarcity of rooms for workers in the neighboring war munitions plant as well as for our own local workers, make it necessary that this appeal be extended to those who never before have leased a part of their homes for rent. This may be one of the ways you can help.

Telephone the Chamber of Commerce, No. 305 to list your rooms or apartments. Following are some of the questions you will be asked in listing rooms and apartments:

Your name; address; telephone number.
Room or apartment address (if different from your own address).
Number of rooms. Conveniences.
Upstairs or down.
Furnished or unfurnished.
Number of persons that can be accommodated.
Rental price.

As a result of the overwhelming sentiment shown in favor of construction of a new City Hospital in the recent poll conducted by the Chamber of Commerce, and because action was promised, a petition is being circulated as the first and necessary step. After extensive study of the various problems involved in securing Federal Aid and in gaining necessary priorities, and after consultation with men responsible for similar hospital action in Savannah and other defense areas, it was found to be necessary to petition the City Council to pass a resolution empowering Mayor McHenry to make application to the United States Government through the Federal Works Agency, Public Works Administration, for a grant to finance and to obtain priorities.

Rochelle is a vital defense area, and will, in addition to our already critical need for hospitalization, be directly affected by the large influx of workers due to the building and operation of the Green River Ordnance Plant, a distance of only 25 miles. Hospitals in northern Illinois are now filled to capacity. Hospital insurance members are increasing—and using the hospitals. Hospitals will never be used less than they are being used today.

This is one of the times that you can be of direct benefit to your own community, and in all probability you may be helping save your own life or that of your family, by getting behind this hospital movement. The fact remains that Rochelle cannot depend upon other communities; that we have an increase in population the type that will demand more hospitalization; that hospital insurance is increasing rapidly; that you may be the one out of nine needing hospital service this year.

Petitions will be made available to you to sign. If you have not had this opportunity before Saturday, March 14, call the Chamber of Commerce office.

ROCHELLE WOMAN'S CLUB TO HEAR SPEAKER, FRIDAY

Sarah Miller Barr of Peoria will be guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Rochelle Women's club to be held in the Library club rooms Friday afternoon, March 13. Mrs. Barr is a lecturer on subjects which deal with personal development in its many phases. She speaks from a sound psychological background and practical experience. She holds a bachelor's degree from Northwestern University and a master's in personnel from Columbia. Her outstanding work as assistant director of personnel at Northwestern testifies to her practical success in the field of human relationships. In this age when the outside world is failing us, individuals must depend more and more upon their own resources. The rediscovery and development of these resources is her deep concern. She has chosen as her subject for Friday's lecture "Ladies in Waiting."

Music will be furnished by Vincent Carney.

Finest Music Will Be Sung Friday Eve at Franklin Grove

Some of the finest gems from the vast treasure store of sacred song are included in the concert program to be presented by the Wartburg choir in its Franklin Grove appearance.

The older period in music is represented by Johann Sebastian Bach's majestic "The Spirit Also Helpeth Us", a motet for double choir. Representing the 19th century composers are Brahms, Tschaiakowsky and Mendelssohn. Schvedov and Gretchaninoff are from the modern Russian school. Following is the complete program:

Part I

O Praise Ye God—Tschaiakowsky.

Grant Unto Me—Brahms (3rd Movement from Motet Op. 29, No. 2)

The Spirit Also Helpeth Us—J. S. Bach. (Motet for double choir).

Part II

Why Rage Fiercely the Heathen—Mendelssohn (for double choir).

His Strength is in the Hills—E. Liemohn. Based on a Swedish folk tune. Lyric by Dr. G. J. Neumann.

Holy Radiant Light—Gretchaninoff.

Part III

In Heaven Above—F. M. Christensen.

With Joyful Song—C. Schvedov. Wake, Awake—E. Liemohn. (Based on the chorale melody by Nicolai).

The concert will be given at Franklin Grove Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock.
